

THE SPIRE

EDWARDS CHURCH of NORTHAMPTON
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

297 Main Street, Northampton, Massachusetts 01060

Vol. 35 No. 11 December 2025

From the Interim Pastor

We here at Edwards Church are participating in a hopeful process. A process seeking peace, celebrating love, and moving toward joy. Advent is a season of waiting and preparing for yet another year of God's grace and mercy. We know that Jesus was already born; we don't need to anticipate that. But we can anticipate the light and truth of God breaking forth in our world today.

We can invite the Holy Spirit to grant us new birth in Jesus' name. We can keep our eyes and ears on alert; looking and listening for the grace of God moving among us. We can apologize, forgive, reach out, and welcome in. For God so loves us that God became human to teach us how to live with each other.

We can, like Mary and Joseph, take risks, knowing that no matter what happens, God loves us and welcomes each of us the way a parent loves and welcomes a newborn child. May God grant you grace throughout the Advent and Christmas seasons.

With joy,
Jennifer

Worship on Saturday, Dec. 6

No Sunday worship!

Advent Festival

One of our favorite Edwards Church traditions!

What: A beloved Edwards Church tradition for all ages to celebrate Advent together! Worship service, tree trimming, carol singing, and a scrumptious light dinner.

When: Saturday, December 6 at 4 pm. Our worship service, which is appropriate for all ages, will include service activities and communion. Our three Faith Formation teachers will be present to help out. It will be followed by a light supper served buffet-style in the Edwards Room and also tree trimming & carol singing in the sanctuary.

Why on Saturday? Downtown Northampton will be the site of the Hot Chocolate Run, a fundraiser for Safe Passages, on Sunday morning, Dec. 7. Due to road closures and parking at a premium for this event, we'll hold our worship service and Advent Party on Saturday.

What should I bring? Bring friends & family, young and old, to share in the fun! You're also invited to bring cookies or some other sweet to share for dessert - preferably something that doesn't require utensils because folks won't be eating at tables. Desserts can be homemade or store-bought, your choice!

What's for dinner? Assorted finger sandwiches, chips, cheese and crackers, and beverages – things that are easy to eat while standing or transitioning back & forth between caroling, tree trimming and enjoying refreshments. Gluten-free sandwich, snack & dessert options will be provided.

Need Transportation? Contact the church office. Several drivers are ready to help.

If you're interested in helping, please call or email the church office: info@edwardschurchnorthampton.com or 413-584-5500.

*This event has been a favorite Edwards Church tradition for many years and you won't want to miss it!
Mark Saturday, December 6th on your calendar now!*

ECM November Meeting Summary

November 17, 2025

All members were in attendance for the November meeting except Leon Drzewianowski, who was traveling, Rev. Geary also attended. ECM reviewed various committee reports and staff activities.

Highlights from committee reports include the successful donation of New Way Funds by the Outreach committee and the Music committee announced new Music at the Crossroads events for February 20 and May 15, 2026.

In the meantime, preparations are underway for Advent, with a special service planned for Saturday, Dec. 6, at 4pm followed by a simple meal, Christmas tree decorating and caroling. For those interested, Edwards is sponsoring a Hot Chocolate team the following morning (Sunday)—please contact the church office for details if you care to join.

Edwards will once again be a host for First Night, the annual Northampton New Year's celebration. Those interested in assisting with the event may reach out to Mark Dion. On a less celebratory note, Rev. Geary reported that the Edwards Church audio system continues to frustrate staff, with only one hand held microphone is currently working. Adam will meet with Alex and Thomas in an effort to resolve the issues though professional help may be needed.

Your participation in these opportunities has been great and very much appreciated. ADVENT & CHRISTMAS IDEAS

DAILY CALENDAR

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
NOV 30	DEC 1	2	3	4	5	6
Write a love note to someone at risk of deportation. Tell them you have their back. Mean it.	Take a long shower. Marvel at the ways water can not only destroy but sustain as well.	As you brush your teeth, think about the last time you bit someone with words. Repent.	Let something go today: a chore, a bug in your house, someone's mistake, your own mistake. Just let it be free!	Find a rock and draw a house on it. Pray to be sturdy and steady for yourself and others.	Turn off the lights and spend five minutes in silence. See what God whispers to you in that eternity.	Open your hands under a stream of warm water. Surrender to God.
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Write a limerick about Christmas. Every act of creation matters.	Put your hands in icy cold water. This is John's call to a baptism of renewal.	Stage a mini Christmas pageant using your nativity figurines (or sock puppets). Narrate the story aloud.	Write yourself a letter from God. Mail it without postage. When it returns, reflect on the slow work of God.	Pray today over the last 5 people who texted you.	Add some flowers to your home, and give thanks for those who speak truth to power.	Make a list: ten things that must be done and ten good things that are already here.
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
Make a list of your shortcomings, then listen to "O Come All Ye Faithful." You are both flawed and faithful.	Drink a glass of water, and ask yourself what you're really thirsting for.	Go for a walk. Look around you for the unexpected, the dissonant, the holy.	Browse a seed catalog. Luxuriate in thoughts of how life could be next summer.	Stare at your eyes in the mirror. Recognize in yourself the enduring fractal of God.	Embellish something today. With glitter, beads, gel pens, sprinkles, make the world sparklier.	Read the news deeply enough that you see Jesus alive and at work. Christmas has already come.
21	22	23	24	CHRISTMAS	26	27
Remember to go to church!	Play your five favorite carols, singing at top volume. You belong to this heritage.	Decorate a gingerbread person. Think about your own body: its hurt, its strength, its pleasure.	Just for tonight, you are Luciano Pavorotti or Leontyne Price. Belt out "O Holy Night."	Give thanks for the world already being born.	What of your faith do you really need to be true? Write it down.	There is no such thing as other people's children. Make a generous gift to a child-saving org today.
28	29	30	31	JAN 1	2	3
Write "Praise the Lord!" in the most beautiful way you know how: calligraphy, cursive, bubble letters!	Call or text a member of your "chosen family" and tell them how glad you are that you belong to each other.	Pray to God with all kinds of titles: Mr., Mrs., Mr., Coach, Capt., Dr., Msg., Prof., HRH, Dame!	Kiss your hands and cradle your face with love.	Give your poverty to God today. Hold out your empty hands and pray that poverty becomes providence.	Think of plans you have. Open the Bible to any random page, and see if God shows you a truth there.	Don't give way to despair! Name aloud five signs of hope you've seen recently.
4	5	EPIPHANY
Make a feast at home. Even if it's leftovers, set a table before God and dine fancy with Them.	Refuse to rush. Breathe. Do only what is necessary; let the rest wait.	Go outside. Face east, and give thanks for God in your past. Next face west, and give thanks for God in your future.
